The figure displays four pie charts arranged horizontally, each representing a different proportion of a total. The first chart has a small red slice (approximately 10%). The second chart has a larger red slice (approximately 25%). The third chart has a red slice that is half of the circle (50%). The fourth chart has a red slice that is three-quarters of the circle (75%). A red rectangular box with the text 'center' is positioned over the second and third charts.
